

The information that you provide in this form is used for the purpose of determining your suitability for the position you have applied for and to ensure that we meet the requirements of legislation, including the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015, Privacy Act 2020, Childrens Act 2014, and other employment laws.

If you are the preferred candidate, in addition to reference checking, police vetting, and NGO Caregiver vetting, further background checks may be undertaken if it is relevant to the role you have applied for. These may include qualification/certification verification, driving record, social media and credit/financial checks.

Your information is confidential and only shared with those who are involved in the recruitment and onboarding process, including Directors, Training and Safety Coordinator, Administration and HR Manager, and any external agencies involved in the safety checking and vetting process. All information relating to the recruitment process is stored securely in our administration office. If you are employed by Adventure Southland, this information will be included in your personnel file and may be viewed by external agencies as part of our regular industry and Social Sector Accreditation auditing processes.

If you are not the successful candidate, we will confidentially destroy your information after 6 months, unless you have given us permission to retain your information for future consideration.
